

SURINAME SAFARI

Duration: 9 nights/10 days

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive in Suriname

Pick up and transfer to Eco Resort Inn. Reception upon arrival in Paramaribo overnight Eco-Resort Inn. 2* hotel

Day 2: Paramaribo - Brownsberg N.P.

Half day tour of the port capital city of Paramaribo and visit to the Paramaribo Zoo. With time permitting, also visits to the Fort Zeelandia Museum and the Palmgarden. Then transfer by bus (2-3 hours) to Brownsberg Nature Park

Overnight in bungalows Located on the Pleateau, overlooking the man-made reservoir Van Blommenstein Meer (B/L/D)

Day 3: Browns berg Nature Park - Paramaribo

A day hiking in the Reserve.

In the afternoon return by bus to Paramaribo and overnight at Eco Resort Inn. (B/L/D)

Day 4: Paramaribo - Ralleighvallen Nature Reserve

This nature reserve, situated along the Coppename River has an area of 78.170 acres and is a gate way to the Central Suriname Nature Reserve. Travel by chartered aircraft. The reserve headquarters and the tourist lodges are located on Fungu Island in the middle of the Coppename River, where you will stay for the next 3 nights at the GONINI / LOLOPASI. Eco lodges. On arrival, you may visit the Manarivallen, where you can take a refreshing bath, after dinner, the guide informs you about the Central Suriname nature reserve and the Maroon culture in this area. The days here are filled with jungle hikes, mountain hikes, bird watching and dugout canoe trips. In the late afternoon you can take dugout canoe rides around the island which offers sightings of different bird species and of course the serene, untouched tropical rainforest. (B/L/D)

Day 5: Ralleighvallen

All day for exploring. A typical day may begin early in the morning, you will depart equipped with a lunch-box and flask to the Voltzberg.

The hike takes about 3 hours. Along the way you can enjoy the beautiful flora and fauna. Rest in the base camp at the foot of the mountain. The trip continues with climbing the top of the mountain (approx. 240 m high.). Here is where you will have a magnificent view of the rainforest canopy. After lunch you hike back to the riverside. You can take a relaxing bath in the Anjumara vallen.

Dinner is served at the lodge (B/L/D)

Day 6: Ralleigh Vallen Paramaribo

All day for exploring and relaxing. A typical day may be in the morning, you will take an educational hike to the Moedervallen. If possible, swimming is allowed at the Lolopasi beach. In the afternoon, you hike around Fungu Island.

The guide tells you more about the flora and fauna of Ralleighvallen. (B/L/D)

Day 7 Free Time

Early morning to explore, relax or swim. Late in the morning. The return flight departs to Paramaribo. Transfer from Zorg & Hoop airfield to the Eco-Resort Inn.

Later, you can explore the city and visit Ready Tex, a native arts and crafts Gallery.(B)

Day 8 Paramaribo Commewijne Plantation

After breakfast, travel along the commewijne river by boat to various Old Dutch colonial plantations of which some are still active. You will visit the New Amsterdam Museum; Marienburg, the oldest Sugarcane plantation in Suriname; Rust en Werk; the Tilapia fishery and Agricultural Projects in Alkmaar, Katwijk and Surroundings. You will see fishermen in the area pull in the Shrimps and you will visit the fish-Smokery. Return to your hotel in afternoon.(B)

Day 9: Departure

Transfer from the Eco-Resort to the airport for return flight.

Price: US$2150 per person based on double accommodation

This price includes:

Accommodation at the best available hotels.
Meals as indicated.
River and land transfers.
Meet and greet services.
Local guides.
Permits and entrance fees.
Internal flights.

This price excludes:

- International airfare & departure taxes.
- Gratuities